

OXFORD HOLIDAY ENGLISH

3r d'ESO Answer Key

OXFORD

Benvolguts pares,

En primer lloc, us volem agrair enormement la confiança que heu dipositat en nosaltres triant Oxford Holiday English com a quadern de vacances per al vostre fill o filla.

Aquest material ha estat específicament dissenyat per ajudar el vostre fill o filla a aconseguir millorar el seu nivell d'anglès durant l'estiu d'una manera efectiva i motivadora. Componen aquest mètode els elements següents:

Un quadern d'activitats dividit en vuit unitats, una per a cada setmana de vacances. El contingut de cada unitat es pot utilitzar en sessions d'entre quaranta minuts i una hora al dia, per així practicar amb regularitat al llarg de l'estiu.

Inclou exercicis pràctics de vocabulari i gramàtica, amb una secció de referència amb explicacions en català; activitats per a la pràctica de les destreses, el llenguatge funcional i la pronunciació, i material de lectura per adquirir llenguatge nou d'una manera amena. A més a més, conté tests d'autoavaluació per a cada unitat i les respostes a totes les activitats per comprovar els progressos del vostre fill o filla en qualsevol moment.

Hi ha una pàgina web específica per a Holiday English (www.oup.es/oxfordholidayenglish) on el seu fill/a trobarà totes les pistes d'àudio.

A aquesta pàgina web també s'inclou el solucionari.

També s'hi inclouen unes fitxes, en les quals l'alumne pot registrar el que ha après en cada unitat, i un test final que avaluarà el nivell d'anglès adquirit al final de l'estiu, a punt per imprimir i lliurar al professor al setembre per tal que el corregeixi i li pugui proporcionar una qualificació.

Esperem que el vostre fill o filla gaudeixi d'Oxford Holiday English i aconseguixi grans resultats utilitzant-lo.

Cordialment,

Oxford University Press

Joe: Mia. Mia! Are you listening?

Mia: Yes, sorry. I'm just sending an email. OK. I'm listening. What's up?

Joe: I've had an idea for our class celebration. Why don't we go camping?

Mia: Oh, no! I hate camping. It always rains and everything gets wet. Let's go to the beach instead. We can play volleyball during the day and we can go out at night. What do you think?

Joe: That isn't a bad idea, but hotels at the beach are really expensive. We haven't got much money, remember. How about staying in a youth hostel in the country?

Mia: Oh, that's a good idea. I love the countryside. We can all swim in the river and go cycling.

Joe: Hmm, I don't really like cycling! But I love swimming, and Katie and Ben enjoy swimming too! Shall we make a list of people to invite?

Mia: Great! Here's a pen. I think it's a great way to celebrate the end of term.

- Evie: Well, it's Josh's birthday. He likes taking photos on his mobile, so we want to buy him a digital camera. Would you like to come shopping? We're going to that new shopping centre on Saturday morning – there are a lot of electronic shops there.
- James: Oh, that sounds great, but I can't. I play basketball on Saturday mornings.
- Evie: That's a shame. How about Sunday? Do you fancy coming to the football match?
- James: Which match is that?
- Evie: Chelsea versus Liverpool. Josh is a big Liverpool fan.
- James: OK, yes! I'd love to!
- Evie: Great!
- James: How much money do I need?
- Evie: You need some money for the ticket, and a bit more if you want to buy some food or drinks.
- James: OK. Are many people coming?
- Evie: No, not many. About six, I think.
- James: OK. I'm really excited already!
- Evie: Me too! I'm glad you can come.

Jo: Oh, hi Lee. How are you?

Lee: Fine, thanks. How was your weekend?

Jo: It was great! I played tennis on Saturday. Then I went to my cousins' house on Sunday. It wasn't raining, so we had a barbecue.

Lee: That sounds nice.

Jo: It was. They've got a pool, so we had a swim while my uncle was cooking. How about you? How did your trip to London go?

Lee: It didn't go very well. In fact, I didn't go.

Jo: Why not?

Lee: Because someone stole my wallet while we were waiting for the train. My friend saw the thief, but it was too late. We spent most of Saturday at the police station.

Jo: Oh, no! I'm sorry about that.

Lee: Don't worry. I didn't have much money in it. Listen. Would you like to see a film tonight?

Jo: I'd love to. What time?

Lee: Let's meet outside the cinema at 7.30.

Jo: Fine. I'll see you later, then. Thanks for calling, Lee.

What's the matter?

Kate: Oh, I want to go to a concert tonight, but I haven't got any money.

Ben: Why don't you ask your parents?

Kate: I can't. My mum gave me forty pounds yesterday and I spent it all on clothes. Now she's really angry with me.

Ben: Kate! You always do that! You shouldn't go shopping every Saturday.

Kate: You're right.

Ben: I think you should get a summer job.

Kate: A summer job?

Ben: Yes, in a café or something. Cafés often need waitresses or people to wash up. You don't have to have any experience.

Kate: But you have to be eighteen to work in a café, don't you?

Ben: No, not in a café. I worked in a tea shop last year and I had a lot of fun. What do you think?

Kate: That's a good idea. Where can I find a job like that?

Ben: You should look on the internet. There are always a lot of summer jobs there.

Kate: OK! Thanks for your advice, Ben.

- Ella: Hi, Luke.
Luke: Hey, Ella. Did you know
Callum has got a new girlfriend?
Ella: Really? What's her name?
Luke: Gina.
Ella: What does she look like?
Luke: She's very tall – taller than Callum! She's got long, dark hair – her hair is longer than yours.
Callum introduced us
yesterday.
Ella: I don't think I know her.
What does she usually wear?
Luke: Well, yesterday she was wearing jeans and a black T-shirt.
Ella: Oh. So what's she like?
Luke: She's a bit shy, but she's very friendly. She seems really nice.
Ella: She sounds perfect for Callum. How old is she?
Luke: She's a bit younger than him. She's about 14, but she looks older.
Ella: Where did they meet?
Luke: They met at the sports club. She was leaving her tennis class and he was going to the gym.
They started chatting, and then they went for a hamburger the next evening.
Ella: How romantic! Does Gina go to our school?
Luke: Yes, she does. She's in Year 9. She's got blue eyes, I think. Look out for her!

- Luc: Hello, Carmen. I haven't seen you for ages. Where have you been?
- Carmen: Hi, Luc. I've just come back from the UK. I've been on holiday.
- Luc: Where did you go?
- Carmen: We went to Liverpool. I've got cousins there.
- Luc: Oh, right. What was the weather like?
- Carmen: It was terrible. I hated it! It rained every day – in July, can you imagine? But apart from that, I had a fantastic time. Have you ever been to the UK?
- Luc: Yes, I have. I've been to London.
- Carmen: Really? I've never been there. What was it like?
- Luc: Oh, it was great. I loved it.
- Carmen: I thought the people were really friendly in Liverpool. I had to go to the chemist's for some medicine, and the people were very helpful. They were nice in the post office too. Did you go shopping?

Carmen: Yes, I did. I went to a lot of clothes shops! I went to the hairdresser's too. What do you think of my new haircut?

Luc: You look great!

- Becky: Ian? I can't see you!
- Ian: Hi, Becky. Wait a minute, let me turn my webcam on. Right. Can you see me now?
- Becky: Hey! Are you doing anything special tonight?
- Ian: No, nothing special. Why?
- Becky: Well, I'm going to a concert, if you're interested.
- Ian: Who's playing?
- Becky: There are four bands playing and one of them is my brother's band, The Ring Tones. He's the guitarist!
- Ian: Cool, I love The Ring Tones! I've got three of their songs on my MP3 player. How much is the concert?
- Becky: It's free. Are you interested?
- Ian: Yes, great! Where is it?
- Becky: In North Park. It's an open-air concert.
- Ian: What time does it start?
- Becky: It starts at half past six, but we don't have to see all the bands. The Ring Tones are playing at eight o'clock, so I'm going to get there at half past seven.
- Ian: Shall I meet you in the park, then?
- Becky: Yes, OK. I'll see you there at half past seven.
- Ian: OK. See you later, Becky.

Ruth: Andy, we need to buy some food for lunch. What do you fancy?

Andy: Oh, I'd really love a nice bowl of tomato soup!

Ruth: No, it's too hot for soup. Why don't we make a salad?

Andy: That's a good idea. How about getting some cheese to go with it?

Ruth: OK. Shall we buy some ham too?

Andy: Oh, no! I'm a vegetarian.

Ruth: Sorry, I always forget that! Come on. Let's go shopping.

Assistant: Hello. Can I help you?

Ruth: Yes, can I have some Cheddar, please?

Assistant: How much would you like?

Ruth: 200 grams, please.

Assistant: There you are. Anything else?

Ruth: Um, I'm not sure. Andy?

Andy: Tomatoes!

Ruth: Oh yes, can I have half a kilo of tomatoes? Oh, and a lettuce!

Assistant: Anything else?

Ruth: Yes, I'd like a carton of apple juice, please.

Assistant: Here you are.

Ruth: Thanks. How much is that?

Assistant: That's ... four pounds thirty, please.
